Das hier vorliegende Werk aus dem 16. Jahrhundert ist das zweite aufgefundenene Stick- und Spitzen-Musterbuch von Hans Sibmacher, dessen werthvoller Inhalt zweifelloses Interesse erregen wird.

Von dem kleineren 1579 erschienenen und nur 36 Blätter umfassenden Modelbuch wurde bereits 1866 durch das k. k. österreichische Museum in Wien eine neue Ausgabe veranstaltet, und ist vorauszusetzen, daß die bedeutend reichere, — 60 Blätter enthaltende, — dieselbe Beachtung und Verbreitung wie die ihr vorausgegangene finden wird. Erhöht wird der Werth des Werkes noch dadurch, daß ein lang im Verborgenen geruhter Schatz, von dem bis jetzt nur einige Proben in L'art pour tous mitgetheilt sind, zur Veröffentlichung gebracht wird, und in einer Ausführung, welche dem Original an Sauberkeit und Exactheit gleichkommt.

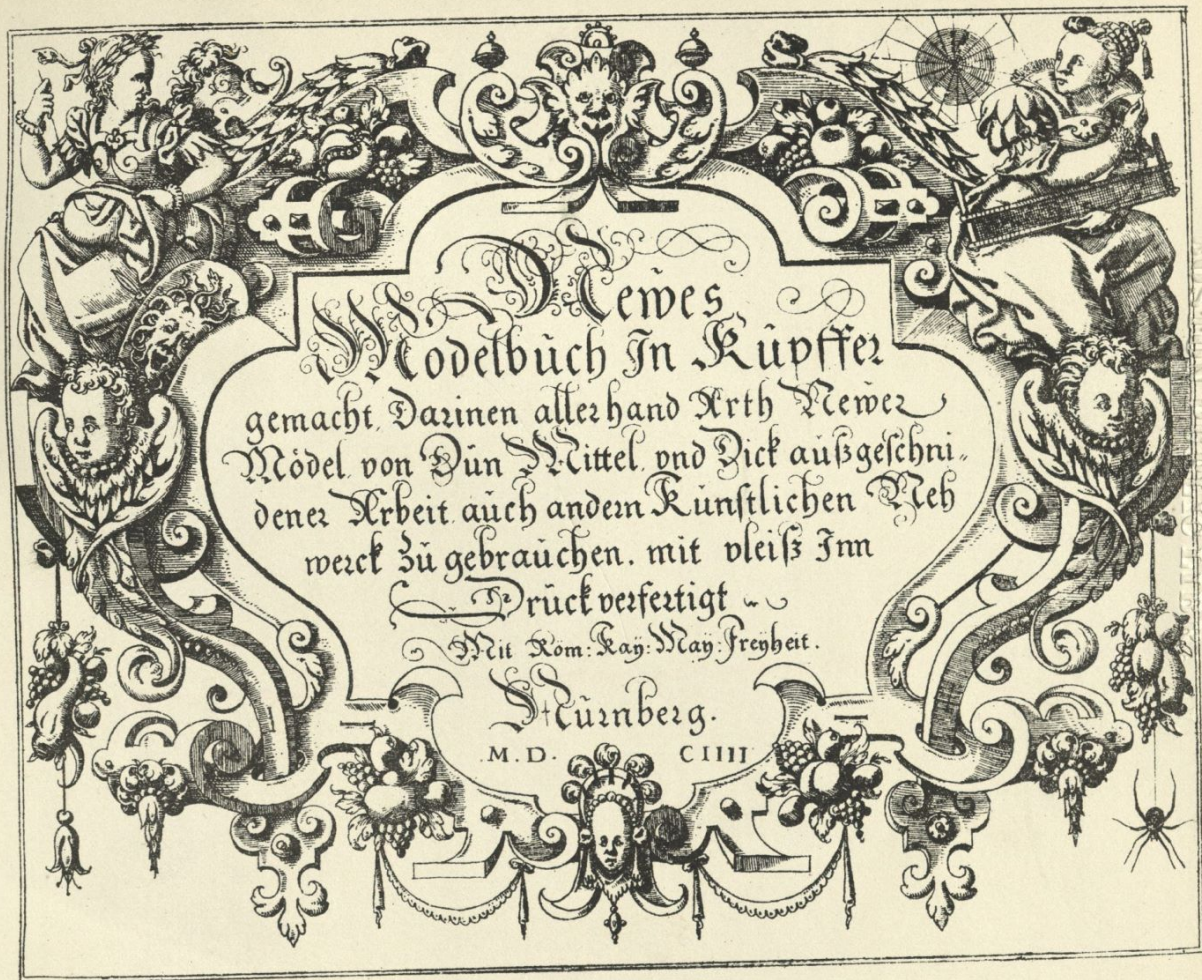

Die leicht verständlichen, reizvollen und ohne technische Schwierigkeiten auszuführenden Muster können die verschiedenste Anwendung finden, sowohl bei der Stramin- und Häfelarbeit, als auch beim Spitzenstick und der Gold- und Silberstickerei. Außerdem dienen die Muster zur Vorlage beim Weben und werden bahnbrechend in den Schulen, in den kunstindustriellen Arbeitskreisen, bei dem Musterzeichnen, Sticken und Ornamentiren zur Bildung des Geschmacks beitragen.

Statt der Albums und Poesiebücher in Goldschnitt gebührt dem Musterbuch Sibmacher's in den Salons auf dem Bücher- und Arbeitstisch der Damenwelt ein Ehrenplatz, um so mehr als der feinere Sinn für das Stilvolle bei der Ausschmückung der Wohnräume und der Toilette hier reiche Gelegenheit hat sich zu entfalten.
